

MALACOLOGIA VOLUME 2, NUMBERS 1 AND 2

MALACOLOGIA, International Journal of Malacology, continued publication during 1964 and 1965 with numbers 1 and 2 of volume 2. It seems that this journal is well under way now and anyone interested in Mollusca in the broadest sense must either subscribe to MALACOLOGIA or keep abreast of the fine articles it publishes. In order to help readers of STERKIANA in this respect, the contents of the latest numbers of MALACOLOGIA are listed below.

VOL. 2, NO. 1, September 1964

E. H. VOKES. Supraspecific groups in the subfamilies Muricinae and Tritonaliinae (Gastropoda: Muricidae). Pages 1-41, 3 pls.

GILBERT F. JONES. The distribution and abundance of subtidal benthic Mollusca on the mainland shelf of Southern California. Pages 43-68, 5 figs.

RICHARD M. BARKER. Microtextural variation in pelecypod shells. Pages 69-86, 4 figs.

ANDREW McCLARY. Surface inspiration and ciliary feeding in Pomacea paludosa (Prosobranchia: Mesogastropoda: Ampullariidae). Pages 87-104, 3 figs.

CHARLES S. RICHARDS. Puerto Rican species of Tropicorbis and Drepanotrema; comparison with Australorbis glabratus and other Planorbids. Pages 105-129, 63 figs.

FRED G. THOMPSON. Systematic studies on Mexican land snails of the genus Holospira, subgenus Bostrichocentrum (Stylomatophora: Urocoptidae). Pages 131-143, 3 pls.

GEORGE M. DAVIS. Shell regeneration in Oncomelania formosana (Gastropoda: Hydrobiidae). Pages 145-159, 23 figs.

VOL. 2, NO. 2, February 1965

A. H. CLARKE, JR. The scallop superspecies Aequipecten irradians (Lamarck). Pages 161-188, 4 pls., 6 text figs.

HARRY S. LADD. Tertiary fresh-water Mollusks from Pacific Islands. Pages 189-198, pl. I, 3 text figs.

R. V. BOVBJERG. Feeding and dispersal in the snail Stagnicola reflexa (Basommatophora: Lymnaeidae). Pages 199-207, 4 figs.

G.M. DAVIS, J.W. MOOSE, and J. E. WILLIAMS. Abnormal development in a hybrid Oncomelania (Gastropoda: Hydrobiidae). Pages 209-217, 7 figs.

J. LEVER, CAROLINA M. de VRIES and J.C. JAGER. On the anatomy of the central nervous system and the location of neurosecretory cells in Australorbis glabratus. Pages 219-230, 3 text figs.

N. W. RUNHAM, K. ISARANKURA and B.J. SMITH. Methods for narcotizing and anaesthetizing Gastropods. Pages 231-238.

R. NATARAJAN, J. B. BURCH and ANNE GISMANN. Cytological studies of Planorbidae (Gastropoda: Basommatophora) II. Some African Planorbinae, Planorbinae and Bulininae. Pages 239-251, 41 figs.

J.B. BURCH. Cytotaxonomic studies of fresh-water limpets (Gastropoda: Basommatophora) III. Japanese Ferrissia and Gundlachia. Pages 253-258, 10 figs.

C. M. PATTERSON. The chromosomes of Tulotoma angulata (Streptoneura: Viviparidae). Pages 259-265, 5 figs.

THOMAS C. CHENG and JOSEPH E. ALICATA. On the modes of infection of Achatina fulica by the larvae of Angiostrongylus cantonensis. Pages 267-274.

A complete index to MALACOLOGIA, vol. 1, appears at the end of vol. 2, No. 1, including dates of publication for each number of vol. 1, author and title index, new and emended taxa, and alphabetical index of scientific names.